SECTION 5: POLICY AND PROCEDURE

TRI-PAR ESTATES PARK AND RECREATION DISTRICT POLICY AND PROCEDURE MANUAL

1. Officially organized and recognized Clubs may use the Clubhouse or Recreation Hall for their activities without charge or deposit. Scheduling shall be coordinated with the Recreation trustee and Office Staff.
 2. These activities are not funded by Tri-Par general fund. Clubs conducting dinners or events must have their own bank accounts and their treasurer must process the income and expenses. An annual report for official Tri-Par sanctioned functions/events and the Flea Market Committee must be prepared and submitted to the Tri-Par office by the end of the fiscal year.
 3. If club requests, the office will print tickets and sell tickets during office hours.
 4. Clubs should provide volunteers to set-up and clean-up.
- D. Private organized groups, such as birthday parties, the Christian Fellowship Group, etc.
1. Park residents desiring a group activity may reserve a room in the Recreation Hall, or the Club House. A deposit will be required according to the building use policy. Scheduling shall be coordinated with the Recreation trustee.
 2. These groups must do their own set-up and clean-up.
- E. Informal unscheduled groups.
1. Informal small groups of residents may use the Recreation Hall rooms for card games, pool, etc. Reservations will not be provided for such groups, as they must use space only as available and on a first-come, first-served basis. They will not be entitled to exclusive use of the room and shall share available space with others. Rooms must be vacated for scheduled and reserved activities.
 2. Groups must clean up after use and leave room ready for the next users.
 3. Rooms may be monitored by security cameras. Damages from misuse or abuse of furnishings and equipment will be billed to the offending users
- F. Outside Groups. See Item 5.14, Building Use Restrictions, and Section 14 of the Enabling Act.
